

I really don't owe my Trump-supporting friends an apology. I've been critical of Trump these last several years, and am still exhausted from the experience. But to be fair, Trump wasn't that bad.....other than when.

1. he incited an insurrection against the government,
2. mismanaged a pandemic that killed a million Americans,
3. separated children from their families, lost those children in the bureaucracy,
4. tear-gassed peaceful protesters on Lafayette Square so he could hold a photo op holding a Bible in front of a church,
5. tried to block all Muslims from entering the country,
6. got impeached,
7. got impeached again,
8. had the worst jobs record of any president in modern history,

236. called himself a very stable genius despite significant evidence to the contrary,
237. refused to commit to a peaceful transfer of power and kept his promise.

238. Don't forget that he took many classified & top secret documents with him when he left the White House, many of which have not been recovered & may have been compromised.

And that ain't the half of it. Plus 30,000 documented lies.

I'm sure there are a whole bunch of other things I can't remember at the moment. I'm sure none of the above comes close to whatever is on Hunter Biden's laptop.

But other than that. . . 🙄

Plz copy and paste. Whoever wrote this deserves credit but I don't know who it is!
